Arnett Law Office Opens in Grand Boulevard at Sandestin®

New firm takes advantage of Town Center location, amenities

Walton County, Fla., October 15, 2008 - Arnett Law Office, P.L. has opened its new law offices in Grand Boulevard at Sandestin®. Real estate and estate planning, condominium management and property issues, probate, trusts and litigation are among the firm's areas of legal expertise and services.

The law firm includes principal attorney Karen Arnett and four other licensed attorneys - her daughter Jane Kerrigan, Casey Jernigan, Ryan Garrity and Daniel Frankfurt.

"The location is very good for us. We draw clients from South Walton and Okaloosa counties. The accessibility to so many fine shops and dining and for entertaining clients is also a big advantage," said Arnett.

The new law offices are located on the second floor of the 600 Grand Boulevard building, which fronts Emerald Coast Parkway and also includes beautiful views of the bustling Town Center. The office design includes a large conference room, offices for the attorneys and a reception area for greeting clients.

A native of the Mid-west, Arnett has been a practicing attorney for more than 30 years. She relocated to Florida in 1998 and practiced with a local established law firm before starting Arnett Law Office, P.L. in 2007. Based on her receipt of the top bar exam score on the February, 2002 exam, she was honored by the Florida Supreme Court to speak on behalf of the candidates at the Ceremony for Induction of Candidates for Admission to the Florida Bar on May 7, 2002.

Ms. Arnett said the overall high-quality of Grand Boulevard in general was another major attraction in selecting the Town Center location for her law office.
