Regus Names New General Manager

The Regus concept is designed to meet the business needs of anyone in need of professional office space and services.

Miramar Beach, Fla., (February 2, 2010) – Allan Burkes has been named general manager of Regus, the internationally-renowned pioneer in outsourced offices located in Grand Boulevard at Sandestin®. As general manager, Burkes will oversee the sales operations and management of the center. Burkes has more than 16 years of experience of development, project management and retail/office leasing experience working primarily with large and middle market commercial developers and brokerage.

Burkes is a native of New Orleans and has lived on Northwest Florida's Gulf Coast for eight years. He currently resides in Santa Rosa Beach, Florida.

Known for its innovative approach to flexible workplaces, Regus is the world's largest provider of fully furnished, fully equipped offices, offering the widest range of products and services to allow individuals and companies to work however, wherever and whenever they need. Their business centers offer furnished and staffed, ready-to-use offices and meeting rooms.
