FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grand Boulevard at Sandestin® Selects the Emerald Coast Children's Advocacy Center as Restaurant Week: Dining for a Cause Partner

Miramar Beach, Fla. October 7, 2009 - Today Grand Boulevard at Sandestin announced the selection of The Emerald Coast Children's Advocacy Center in Niceville as its beneficiary for the first-ever Restaurant Week: Dining for a Cause.

"We are honored to be selected as Grand Boulevard's exclusive charitable partner for Restaurant Week. Grand Boulevard approached us with this idea and it really is a fantastic opportunity to try new cuisine and give back to the community," The Center's Executive Director Julie Hurst said.

Scheduled for November 9- 13, the week will feature a specially selected three-course meal at each of Grand Boulevard's five signature restaurants: Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar, P.F. Chang's China Bistro, Tommy Bahama Tropical Café, Cantina Laredo Mexican Gourmet and Mitchell's Fish Market. The Center receives one dollar for each select three-course meal sold during the week.

"Restaurant Week patrons are getting a fabulous meal at a great price and giving a little back to an organization that helps hundreds of abused children in our community every year," said Stacey Brady, director of communications for Grand Boulevard. "We are excited to partner with the Children's Advocacy Center and are looking forward to giving our diners a unique experience."

In addition to the specially prepared three course meals each night, each visit during the week earns the patron an entry into a drawing for a $1,000 Shopping Spree. The drawing will be held the evening of November 13 at Grand Park in Grand Boulevard.

"We wanted to thank Restaurant Week diners and thought a shopping spree the month before Christmas would be a great way to say thank you," Brady said.
